

BRITISH FALL BACK

General Yule Abandons Dundee and Stands at Glencoe.

BOERS APPEAR IN STRONG FORCE

Parliament Asked to Vote More Money for the War.

THE FIGHTING YESTERDAY

LONDON, October 23.—The parliamentary secretary of the war office, Mr. George Wyndham, made a statement in the house of commons today, saying:
"Lord Wolseley sums up the position in Natal early this morning as follows:
"In the battle of Elands-laagte, October 21, two guns were captured from the Boers, who lost heavily.
"A large column of the enemy appeared, advancing from the north and west on Gen. Yule, who consequently had fallen back from Dundee and was concentrating at Glencoe Junction. In this operation we gathered in the wounded and medical attendants left at Dundee.
"Gen. White was in position at Ladysmith and is being reinforced from Pietermaritzburg.
"The enemy appears to be in large numerical superiority."
Expenditure Due to War.
The chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, made a statement on the question of the expenditure entailed by the Transvaal war. He said the expenditure for the year had increased by the supplementary vote to a total of £121,205,000, but, he added, the revenue had increased and he expected there would be an increase of £3,000,000 over his estimate of the revenue. This would be a considerable contribution toward the unforeseen expenditure, and would leave about £7,000,000 to be provided.
He thought there should be no addition to the fixed debt, but that the money should be raised by a temporary addition to the floating debt. The chancellor of the exchequer therefore asked for power to raise £20,000,000 by treasury bills, the whole question of repayment and the question of the fresh taxation to be left over the next financial year.
Sir Michael also pointed out that the present war differed from previous ones, and that the estimates had been more carefully drawn up. No one could foresee what the total cost would be, but the British government had met with brilliant success and the colonies were loyal. There might be something in today's reports giving cause for anxiety, yet he saw no reason to anticipate that the campaign would not be brought to a successful conclusion within the period for which the estimates were framed.

COST TO COME OUT OF TRANSVAAL.

As British colonies had been invaded, he considered it to be consistent with all the laws of war if, when it was brought to a successful termination, the Transvaal taxpayer should at any rate have to bear part of the cost.
Transvaal, he continued, was wealthy in its gold fields. There had been complaints from those interested in the gold fields that there had been excessive taxation, but he believed from the best information that under a pure and honest government it would be perfectly possible for the Transvaal to bear not only the ordinary expenses of government and of providing for the maintenance of peace and order within its territory, but also to provide a reasonable sum toward the expenses of the war, with a reduction at the same time of the taxation of the gold fields.
Continuing, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said:
"If these anticipations are not fulfilled and the sum borrowed proves to be but part of the total cost of the war we shall appeal to your patriotism next April. We believe that those who have supported us in the prosecution of this work will not fail us when it comes to pay the bill. If fresh taxation were introduced, it would prolong the debate and produce a division which might be entirely misinterpreted abroad. I shall not take any course which will promote a division or prevent us from presenting a united front in this crisis."

DESIGNS OF FOREIGN POWERS.

The sensational rumors of the designs of foreign powers inimical to British interests met with scant credence, though it is admitted it is difficult to explain the immense forces on land and sea which Great Britain is now mobilizing.
In Vienna it is reported that the British naval movements are due to a rumor that Russia, with the assent of France, is about to acquire from Spain Ceuta or some other naval station on the African coast.
Elsewhere it is stated that the movements of the French Mediterranean fleet in the neighborhood of the Levant, in order that it could easily be joined by the Russian Black sea fleet by the Straits of the Dardanelles, is occasioning suspicion.
Lady Randolph Churchill and Mrs. Arthur Paget are organizing a fund among American ladies in England with the intention to completely equip a hospital ship for service on the South African coast at a cost of $8,000. Lady Curzon and Mrs. Bradley Martin have been invited to join the committee.
The authorities in Australia are much exercised at the reports that the Imperial government has ordered canned meats in America, though the war office has promised to conserve Australian interests. Those in the best position to judge, however, predict that the packers of the United States will secure large orders, as the British colonies are unable to supply a tithe of the quantity required if the campaign continues long.
What is believed to have been an attempt to wreck military trains bound from Pietermaritzburg to Johannesburg was discovered yesterday evening. Five chains were placed on the tracks at points near Swansburg. Two trains laden with South African troops passed soon after their discovery.

LOSSES AT ELANDSLAAGTE.

LONDON, October 23.—An official dispatch from Ladysmith, the British headquarters in Natal, dated 10 p.m. yesterday, gives the following list of casualties among the prominent Boers at the battle of Elands-laagte:
Gen. Viljoen, killed.
Gen. Kock, wounded and captured (since dead).
Gen. Kock's son, killed.
Col. Schiel (German officer commanding at the artillery), wounded and a prisoner.
Commander Pretorius, wounded, prisoner.
Several Boer standards captured.
The following is an official list of the British casualties at the battle of Elands-laagte:
Imperial Light Horse—killed—Col. Scott-Chisholm.
Wounded—Maj. Sampson, Capt. Orr, Capt.

EFFECT OF BRITISH VICTORIES.

Belief That the Boers Will Soon Sue for Peace.
LONDON, October 23.—The British victories in Natal, following each other in quick succession, though accompanied by heavy losses on the side of the victors, bear striking testimony to the valor of the vanquished Boers. They appear to have fallen victims to the very plan which they counted on to drive the British into the sea. They have been beaten in detail by a single stroke, and are now being pursued and brilliantly carried out in the face of courageous opposition, which has done much to increase British respect for the burghers, whose splendid valor and determination, it is universally admitted, reached the highest level.
Fuller accounts of Saturday's battle at Elands-laagte emphasize the splendid gallantry exhibited on both sides, and the superiority of the British in a pitched battle, although the Boers fought with the greatest tenacity to the last, only yielding when further fighting was hopeless. An armored train with the men of the Manchester regiment appeared on the left at Ladysmith at daybreak Saturday in support of the Johannesburg Imperial light horse and the Natal field artillery, with the object of reopening communication at Elands-laagte. The artillery took up a position above the town and shelled the railway station, from

WHICH THE BOERS RAN OUT, AND THE BRITISH MOUNTED INFANTRY ENTERING THE PLACE, RELEASED THE ENGLISH PRISONERS.

BOERS OPEN HOT FIRE.

The Boers, numbering some 1,000 men, with three guns, occupied a commanding position. They poured such a well directed fire on the British and their scouts were so active that the British force steadily retired until reinforcements arrived, when the mounted infantry was sent to drive the Boers scouts from the ridge on the right.
A large force of mixed cavalry, in the meanwhile, swept over the plain and up the hill on the right. The Lancers were met with a heavy fusillade, while on the left a British battery opened fire with good effect.
The British infantry, who had debarked from the railway train in the interim, advanced steadily over the plain and up the rocky ridge previously cleared by the cavalry. The Boer artillery dropped shrapnel into the advancing columns, but the British finally scaled the hill, whence they overlooked the broad valley to three rocky hills forming the Boers' position, their camp lying in the center. On the left center the Boers had a battery of large guns. The smaller hills were also strongly held. On the Boer right was the station in a valley on the British left. The latter's cavalry was on both flanks, and a battery on the right was busy throwing shrapnel at the Boers' batteries.
The British infantry formed for the attack in extended order behind the brow of a hill, the Devonshires on the left, with four companies of the Manchesters and some of the Gordons on the right.

BRITISH ADVANCE BEGINS.

At about 5 p.m. the infantry advanced through the valley as steadily as on a field day. Half way down the slope they met a terrific infantry and artillery fire. The men fell rapidly, and the wounded were carried to the rear. But in spite of the steady work of the Boer guns and the sharpshooters concealed behind the rocks, the increasing fire of the advancing British infantry gradually gained the upper hand, and Manchesters and Gordons, edging toward the right, gained the top of the ridge, thus outflanking the enemy's left.
At 6 o'clock the British sounded the "charge" and the British moved ahead. The Boers fought to the last, only attempting to escape when further fighting was hopeless.
In the meantime the Devonshires, pressing steadily up the left, were strongly opposed at the Boer camp and from the flanking hills and carried both at the charge with wild cheers and bugle blasts.
By 7 o'clock the British had gained the position and "cease firing" was sounded.
Three Transvaal Nordenfeldts were captured, with quantities of munitions.
The Boer loss was heavy. The wounded among the rocks were attended to as far as possible in the dark.
Gen. French thanked the troops on the field, especially mentioning Col. Jan Hamilton's splendid handling of the infantry.
The British bivouacked on the captured position Saturday night.
Some estimates place the Boer losses at 500 men, but this is perhaps exaggerated.

COL. SCOTT-CHISHOLM'S RECORD.

Col. Scott-Chisholm of the Imperial Light Horse, who was killed, was formerly attached to the 9th Lancers. He served with distinction in the Afghan war and organized the present Imperial Light Horse, a majority of whom are refugees from the Rand.
The death of Gen. Viljoen is a severe blow to the burghers, and the death of Gen. Kock and the capture of Gen. Pretorius will handicap the further movements of this column.
According to advices from Durban, Natal, the Boers have entered Zululand, a large column advancing toward Meloth.
The last report did not credit the reports that the Boers are suing for peace or that they are likely to yield at present, though they think the Boers will probably retreat to their line of defense in the mountain passes of Laing's Nek and Drakensburg, where they have blocked the passes with great boulders and masses of rock blown up on either side, and where, if they so desire, they would be able to hold out until the advance of Major General Sir Redvers Buller, through the Orange Free State, compelled them to leave the Natal side to meet the invasion from the south.

AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN NEEDED.

Col. J. C. Loper's Views on the Philippine Situation.
CHICAGO, October 23.—A special to the Record from San Francisco, dated October 22, says:
Col. J. C. Loper, in command of the 51st Regiment of Iowa Volunteers, in an interview on the Philippines situation says:
"All that is needed now is an aggressive campaign, with plenty of men, and this war will be settled in short order. The Filipinos must be thoroughly whipped. That is the only thing they will appreciate just now."
"Every town taken must be held and war conducted in stern fashion. No more of this Amboke business. The Philippines are a rich country and capable of great commercial development. Our prestige in the Orient has greatly increased as a result of our war. We stand in a position to command the wonderful trade if we will only grasp the situation."

CONVENTION STILL IN SESSION.

Alaskan Delegates Attend the Present Convention.
JUNEAU, Alaska, October 21, via Seattle, October 23.—The Alaska territorial convention, in session here for seven days, has not yet completed its labors of drafting a suitable memorial to be sent to Congress. The convention will not go on record as favoring territorial government, although ex-Gov. Swineford and others favor it. Sitka sent no delegates to the convention, and will be ignored in the bill under preparation.
The criminal code, in effect since July last, is vigorously attacked, particularly the high license imposed. Among other things asked for are the granting of municipal government, a $15,000 appropriation for Alaskan national guards, $75,000 for education, and an increase from one to three district courts at Juneau, St. Michaels and Circle City. Probably three delegates will be sent to Washington to present the memorials.

NEGRO SOLDIERS HELD IN BAIL.

Charged With Beating Tonto Indians at San Carlos Agency.
GLOBE, Ariz., October 23.—The thirteen negro soldiers of the 25th Infantry accused of beating with clubs four Tonto Indians on the night of October 13, at San Carlos Indian agency, had a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner C. T. Martin, who held the defendants under $500 bail to appear before the United States grand jury.
The prisoners will be taken to Florence, where the court of the second district meets November 20. The Indian policeman whose skull was fractured by a blow dealt by George Young is still in a precarious condition.

STRIPPING THE SHAMROCK.

Capt. Hogarth Expected to Be Ready for Sea This Week.
NEW YORK, October 23.—The crew of the yacht Shamrock were at work early today stripping the yacht of her racing rigging. Her tomast was sent down on deck and then transferred to her storage lighter, after which her running gear was unrove and all her sails taken from the hold and transferred to the lighter. Capt. Hogarth said that he expects to take the mast off tomorrow and to have the yacht under way by the end of the week. Capt. Hogarth also stated that he called on Designer Fife at the Fifth Avenue Hotel recently and found his condition to be very serious.
The Shamrock's crew, together with the Columbia's, are to be entertained at a smoker tomorrow night.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Cubans Are Awaiting the Promises of Independence.

GENERAL NUNEZ SEES THE PRESIDENT

Senator Platt Has a Conference About New York Matters.

OTHER CALLERS TODAY

Gen. Emilio Nunez, who is attending the commercial congress at Philadelphia as the delegate of the Cuban people, called at the White House today with Senator Quesada to talk over the Cuban situation with the President. General Nunez told the President that the Cuban people are awaiting the promises of independence, and was pleased with the assurance of the President that this would come as soon as possible. The President has stated to a number of people that he soon intends to establish civil government in the island.
Senator Platt of New York was with the President some time, discussing matters local to his state. Mr. Odell, republican state chairman, and Mr. Quigg, republican county chairman, are credited with a desire to have the scalps of a number of democrats alleged to be holding federal offices in New York. It is said they have asked Senator Platt to make a fight for the removal of these democrats. The senator said this morning that he had not come here regarding any matter of general interest.
The White House today the senator went to the Treasury Department for a conference with Secretary Gage over the selection of architects for the New York custom house.
In his talk with Secretary Gage, Senator Platt protested against the selection of Cass Gilbert, who was recommended by the commission appointed by the President, as providing for the creation of the custom house. The senator's objection is that the custom house ought to be built by an architect who has resided in New York for years, and is familiar with what is needed. He asks that a new commission be appointed to take the matter under consideration. Secretary Gage will decide upon the request by November 1.
The Masons Received.
President McKinley this morning received the members of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Order of the Scottish Rite Masons, southern jurisdiction. The reception took place in the President's room. Judge Thomas H. Caswell of San Francisco, the grand commander, made a brief talk and presented the members. The President expressed great pleasure at meeting such a distinguished body of men.
Director Menzies a Caller.
Gov. Merriam, the director of the census, was one of the President's callers. He was accompanied by Thomas Lowery and F. B. Kellogg of Minnesota, the latter a law student of the President's son. The director of the census was in the President's room for some time.
Minister to Argentina.
President McKinley has appointed Wm. P. Lord of Oregon as minister to the Argentine Republic.
HOLDING THE IDAHO MINERS.
Secretary Root Suggests Calling Extra Session of Legislature.
Gov. Steunenberg of Idaho had another conference today with Secretary Root respecting the maintenance of federal custody of the miners who are now held as prisoners in Idaho by the troops. The War Department is extremely anxious to escape responsibility for the further care of these prisoners. On the other hand, Gov. Steunenberg cannot see his way clear to accepting their custody in behalf of the state, because he has no sufficient force to take care of them. Secretary Root has suggested as the only way out of the difficulty that the governor issue a call for a special session of the legislature to deal with the question. Meanwhile the War Department will continue for a short time at least to hold the prisoners and will maintain the present garrison at Gardiner.

LAWLESSNESS AT CAPE NOME.

Report of Lieut. Jarvis, Commanding the Revenue Cutter Bear.
Captain Shoemaker of the revenue cutter service has received a report from Lieutenant Jarvis, commanding the revenue cutter Bear. The Bear went up the Alaskan coast as far as Point Barrow, and on its way back stopped at Cape Nome, the new gold fields, to which there has been such an immense rush. Lieutenant Jarvis says that typhoid fever is prevalent at Cape Nome, but it is hoped that cold weather will put an end to the disease. The sick list is heavy.
There are hundreds of miners at Cape Nome, and the lawless element is larger than at any other place. The cutter will operate with the military and other authorities, and bring away as many people as possible. It is thought that there will be sufficient food and fuel for the winter.

FINANCIAL LEGISLATION.

Senate Committee to Meet Before Congress Assembles.
The Senate finance committee will probably hold a session about two weeks before Congress meets for the purpose of considering the question of proposed financial legislation. There has as yet been no conference between the Senate committee and the House caucus committee, which has formulated a measure to be proposed to Congress.
